HUNGARIAN FILM SCREENINGS

In cooperation with Epicentre, Gurgaon

A package of 3 Hungarian films will be screened at Epicentre, Gurgaon as per the following schedule:

September 10

Down by Love directed by Tamás Sas (2002), colour, 90 min

Twenty-four-year-old Éva has lived for years in the flat left to her by her parents. The only meaning in her restricted life is her secret affair with Tibor, a forty-four-year-old married man. The unusual plot of the film is told in an unusual way. With great vigour a single actress manages to bring a feeling of desperate loneliness to her 90-minute performance.

September 17

Kontroll directed by Nimród Antal (2003), colour, 106 min

This film is a special mixture of tale and reality, down below, under the ground. The story is about a strange young man, Bulcsú, his fellow inspectors, who are all without exception likeable characters, a rival ticket inspection team, and racing along the tracks and perhaps about love and starting anew.

September 24

FRESH AIR directed by Ágnes Kocsis (2006), Colour, 109 min

Viola is still a beautiful woman. Angéla is ashamed of her mother. Communication between them has become almost impossible. Probably, in secret, they both are in love with the protagonist. Viola works where no one else wants to. She is looking for a real man whom she could love. Angéla would like to design nice dresses. She desires something different. Another life. Fresh air.

Fábri Film Club at HICC

September 12, Thursday, at 6:00 pm

THORN CASTLE (TÜSKEVÁR)

Hungarian film, directed by György Balogh (2012), colour, duration: 99 minutes

This modern adaptation of the classic Hungarian youth novel by István Fekete is an amazing and timeless adventure story. It's a coming-of-age tale about two boys who spend their summer vacation down at the lake. Skipper is rewarded with the countryside vacation by his parents because of his good school grades. He is a typical urban teenager and completely clueless about nature. The old ranger, Uncle Matula, who is wise and humorous, begins to teach Skipper all he needs to know about getting along in the country, just in time for his best friend Bunion to arrive. The friends discover the wilderness and become young adults by the end of the summer.

This film is for everyone who ever longed to escape to the wonders of nature. Filled with the beauty of the Hungarian countryside, you can almost smell the food.

Exhibition at HICC

September 24-October 1

Inauguration on 24th September at 6:00 pm

EXPRESSIONS OF...

Group exhibition for four Indian artists Sangeeta Marwah, Ritika Chopra, Shruti Vij and Ravneet Kaur

' You are a person, beautiful and unique.....express yourself, strengthen yourself, kick yourself, wet yourself with tears, dry yourself with confidence, say how you feel, love like it's real, be who you are, never let anything make you believe your life isn't worth living.....'

This exhibition is an attempt to bring some self expressions which emerge from inspiration that is sparked by the reflection of our artworks.

Opera Evening at Kamani Auditorium

September 25th, 26th, 27th at 7:00 pm

ORFEO, CROSSING THE GANGES BY MONTEVERDI

The Neemrana Music Foundation presents an Opera with a lead singer Dávid Szigetvári (tenor) from Hungary, who won the First Prize of the Johann Sebastian Bach International Competition Leipzig 2012.

'Orfeo' is considered to be one of the first in opera history (1607), an opera in which Monteverdi merged the arts of poetry, of theatre and of music for the first time.

In the story of 'Orfeo, crossing the Ganges', Orfeo travels to India and falls in love with Eurydice, dancer consecrated to the service of Lord Shiva. He kidnaps her and marries her, thus provoking the fury of the Grand god: the cobra around Shiva's neck kills Eurydice. Orfeo's quest in the beyond to find the beloved, is like a crossing of the Ganges to the holy city of Varanasi. Presumptuous victim of his illusions, Orfeo fails and is put to death.
